Unifi Technologies Announces Dates for Unifi-Med EMR Partner Seminars

BEND, Ore., November 19, 2009 /PRNewswire/ -- Unifi Technologies announces dates for its Unifi-Med EMR Partner Seminars. The first Unifi-Med EMR Partner Seminar will be held in New York on December 8 and Florida on December 10, West Coast dates are targeted for the first week in January, 2010. The Unifi-Med EMR Seminars are designed to educate Unifi Partners on Unifi-Med 5.0.

The Unifi-Med EMR Partner Seminars bring together an elite group of Unifi Partners who will receive training and in-depth knowledge on the value of Unifi-Med and its position as a leading web-based EMR solution nationwide. Partners will also have the opportunity to network and discuss various business opportunities.

"The explosion and response from our partners with regard to Unifi-Med 5.0 has been overwhelming. Unifi is committed to the success of each partner and we want to empower them with product knowledge. Initially with two Unifi-Med EMR Seminars scheduled the demand was so great we have increased that number to four and potentially five nationally within the next quarter. The draw to Unifi-Med as a unique fully integrated web-based EMR solution has exceeded our every expectation. We look forward to working with each Unifi partner in a hands-on environment and watching their success with Unifi-Med in the marketplace," comments Anne Sommi Edmondson, Director of Marketing, Unifi Technologies.

Unifi-Med is a web based EMR solution with fully integrated Clinical, Practice Management and Patient modules built as a SaaS model on cloud computing technology.
